Currituck County 4-H Clubs

4-H helps young people grow and develop by providing hands on activities. To provide this experience, many communities have ongoing organized 4-H community clubs. These clubs are conducted by local trained community leaders. Clubs are expected to develop a club calendar that outlines age appropriate educational and social activities that will occur during the year. Adults and 4-H'ers work together to plan the club calendar with educational programs. Clubs are also designed to allow members to have opportunities to develop leadership skills by electing officers. Not only are members learning simple parliamentary procedures and flag etiquette, but also enhancing their self esteem. Members of a community club have diverse interest and decide as a group what kind of programming and projects that they will participate in during the year.

CLUBS IN COUNTY

Sand Spurs - Members are between 9-18. This is a horse project club. Youth compete in horse art, photography, judging, showing, and general horse care. Leaders: Glenda Wisenbaker, Patricia Rippin and Lisa Robey

Seeking Success - is a horse project club that meets at the NCCES office or the leader’s home in Brayview Landing. Members engage in a variety of activities including project books, presentations, horse judging, horse shows, and horse bowl. Members are between 8 and 18. Leaders: Kathy Pugh, Gale Durbin, Daphne Hauser

Trailblazers - 4-H Club that meets at the leader's home. Club members show livestock animals at Albemarle Area Livestock Show and Sale, Jackpot Shows, and State Fair. Leaders also plan a variety of other projects, fieldtrips and activities. Club members are between 6 – 15. Leaders: Wendy and Randy Roberts

Tailwaggers - Club members main focus on dog care and training. Members attend seminars, day trips, and special events. They meet at the county library or at the NCCE office. Leaders- Jeff Holland and Pam Wilson

Sandy Boots - This is a Horse Project Club. The members engage in a variety of activities including project books, presentations, horse judging, showing, and horse bowl. Members are between 8 and 18. Leaders- Kim Wickre, Joann Eike

Carolina Shooters - This club is a shooting sports club. The members meet the 1st and 2nd Sunday of the month. They practice shooting rifle, shotgun and archery. Leaders - Fred Schoenewerk, Ann Treadway, Buddy Owens, Ronald Firkel
Island Saddle Club- This is a Horse Project Club in Knotts Island. The members do not ride the horses their main focus is learning about horses and the different breeds. These members do not show and do not have to own a horse to participate in this club. They meet at the leader's home. Leader - Carol Molloy

Clover Explorers- This club is for youth ages 5-9 years of age. This club has a variety of activities. They participate in presentations, project books, and go on field trips. Leader- Sandra Conner

Currituck County Homeschool Club- This particular 4-H club meets at the NCCE office the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month. The members participate in project books, presentations, field trips and other 4-H activities. Leader- Tracey Williamson

For more information or phone numbers to reach club leaders please call Stephanie Minton, 4-H Program Associate at 252-232-2262 or e-mail Stephanie_minton@ncsu.edu Currituck County Center